Introduction of e-Invoice

- An e-invoice is a digital record of a transaction between a supplier and a buyer, introduced by the Inland Revenue Board of Malaysia (LHDN).
- An e-invoice contains the same information as a traditional invoice, such as the supplier's and buyer's details, product description, quantity, price not including tax, tax, and total amount, which tracks the transactional information for day-to-day business transactions.
- Differences between a traditional invoice and an e-invoice

Traditional invoice	e-Invoice
Does not contain a Unique Identification Number (UIN) issued by LHDN.	Each validated e-Invoice receives a Unique Identification Number (UIN) and QR code for online verification.
Records are maintained by the supplier and buyer and may be requested by LHDN for verification or audit purposes.	Transaction data is submitted electronically to LHDN for validation and is recorded in the MyInvois system.
May involve manual data entry and handling of physical or electronic documents.	Uses structured digital data, enabling automated processing and reducing manual data entry.

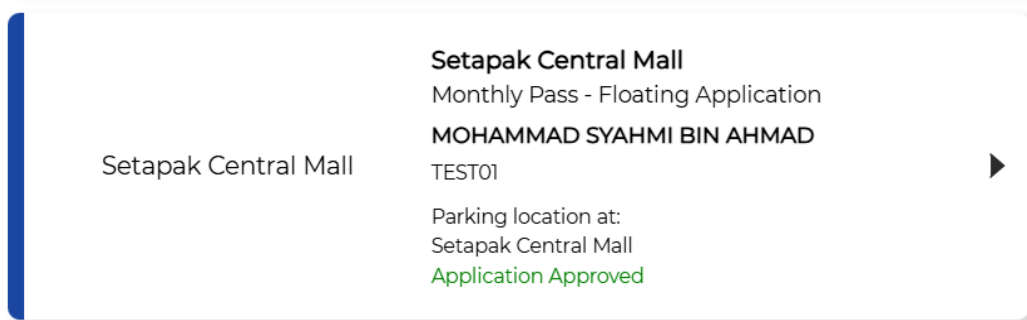

- Consolidated & non-Consolidated

Consolidated	Non-Consolidated
Multiple transactions are combined and submitted as a single consolidated e-Invoice , subject to LHDN's consolidation rules.	An individual e-Invoice is issued for a specific transaction between the supplier and buyer.

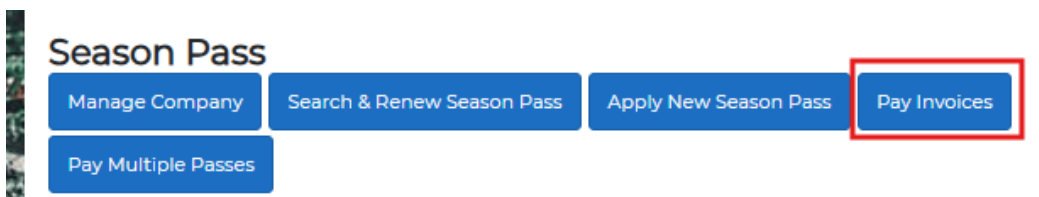

- For further information regarding e-Invoice, please visit the official LHDN website:

Request an e-Invoice for visitor/penalty

- IRBM (LHDN) has notified that if a non-consolidated e-Invoice is requested by an individual buyer, the supplier is required to fulfil the request.
- To meet compliance requirements, customers should request a non-consolidated e-Invoice for visitor or failed season pass payments through haste.my or contact haste helpdesk for penalty transaction prior to consolidated submission.

The customer may submit the non-consolidated e-Invoice request via haste.my on transaction slip (e-receipt) shown as below.

The visitor transaction slip is linked to the customer's payment card number. The customer may navigate to the Transaction tab and click Manage Payment to link their card number. Note: No verification charge will be applied, as we only require the card number for identification purposes.
